2021 State Ministers Meeting REMINDERS:

1. REPORTING: Excerpt from our State Ministers Meeting Minutes, Page 10, Item IV. Boards, B:

(B) Further, that no person serve on a standing elected or appointed board who is not current in their church or personal ministerial reports. (This would not apply to church reports which were in arrears prior to their appointment as pastor.) Further, that those inconsistent in reporting not be placed in nomination for an elected or appointed board after January 1, 1991.

In order to comply with this, the person must be notified by letter from the State Overseer if the report is in arrears. Also, the State Overseer must notify the minister who is delinquent with his report not less than sixty (60) days prior to a state meeting or an election. And, thirty (30) days prior to state ministers meeting is the cutoff date for catching up delinquent reports. General Information: Church and Ministers reports should be received (not postmarked) in the State Office by the 5th of each month.

NOTE: In order to be eligible to serve on a standing, elected, or appointed board, individuals delinquent in personal and/or church reporting, must report by Monday, January 4, 2021 (these reports must be RECEIVED; not postmarked) in the State Office by Monday, January 4, 2021.

- If you have questions concerning your ministerial reports:
Stacy Black – stacy.black@sccog.com or 864.963.4751 x104
- If you have questions concerning your treasurer's reports (church reports):
